GAINED THEIR GOAL

British Forces Succeed in Occupying Pretoria.

BOERS RESISTED BRAVELY

For One Day but Were Completely Outnumbered by Foes.

REPRESENTATIVES OF REPUBLICS

In America Are Informed of the Invasion of Transvaal Capital by Her Majesty's Army but They Assert the War is Not Fully Settled.

London, June 5.—The war office has issued the following dispatch from Lord Roberts: "Pretoria, June 5.—We are now in possession of Pretoria. The official entry will be made this afternoon at 2 p. m."

London, June 5.—It was verbally announced at the war office that Lord Roberts entered Pretoria at 2 p. m., South African time.

London, June 5.—Almost eight months after the declaration of war, Lord Roberts entered Pretoria. While the commander-in-chief of the greatest army Great Britain ever put in the field, was fulfilling the promise he made to the guards at Bloemfontein, to lead them into the capital of the Transvaal, England was celebrating the event with wild enthusiasm.

Throughout the length and breadth of the country the news spread like wildfire. Based on the recollection of recent European wars, when the occupation of the enemy's capital signified the end of hostilities, Lord Roberts' terse telegram was taken universally to mean the practical finish of the war which has tried Great Britain's military resources as they were never tried before.

In London, the Mansion house, and the war office almost instantaneously became the centers for jubilant throngs. Flags again appeared as if by magic and traffic had to be diverted through other streets. Hatless and coatless men ran through the city alleys to see for themselves the bulletins announcing the good news and staying to join in the thunder of cheers or add their voices to the joyful throngs singing "God Save the Queen."

Hats hoisted from thousands of canes were waved in exultant hands. Men on top of omnibuses and aldermen from the windows of the Mansion house encouraged the crowds to still further their efforts. The premature report of the fall of the Boers' stronghold did not seem to have taken the edge off the day's celebration. Lord Roberts' Six Miles Spruit dispatch was hardly printed by the "extras" before the Union Jack of the war office was hoisted up the flagstaff and the brief message was passed from mouth to mouth "Pretoria is ours."

Those who had a chance to read the Lord Roberts' account of the resistances encountered Monday were at that moment commenting on the probability of a fierce fight before the city was occupied and were wondering at the Boers' capabilities to make such a determined stand when Pretoria was hemmed in on all sides. The pressure of General French north of the Boer capital came as a surprise.

It was evident that Lord Roberts' delay attacking until all his colleagues were ready to co-operate, but even when Lord Roberts wired that this was accomplished there seemed a possibility of some fighting, so when the next momentous dispatch was given out it came as a surprise.

Judging from Lord Roberts' phraseology the occupation of Pretoria was not accompanied by any loss of life. What has happened to the Boer forces which so insistently opposed the British advance at Six Miles Spruit can only be surmised. But presumably, they have got away for the present at any rate.

The latest dispatches from Pretoria, dated June 3 quote General Botha as saying: "So long as we can still count on our thousands of willing men we must not dream of retreat or throwing away our independence." General Botha, it is added, annulled the regulations appointing a special committee to preserve order, substituting military control for that of the committee. General Lucas Meyer, addressing the burghers on the church square urged them all to stand fast. Thus though their efforts were pitifully futile, it is evident that a few faithful Boer generals worked desperately to resist the overwhelming force of Lord Roberts' army.

The war office has information that one of the first things done by Lord Roberts after the occupation of Pretoria was to direct General French to relieve the British prisoners confined at Waterval.

BOER ENVOYS

Hear the News of the Fall of Pretoria at Chicago.

Chicago, June 5.—The Boer envoys arrived here but the real welcoming words of the reception committee were lost in the shouts of newsboys crying: "All about Pretoria surrendered." The news of the fall of the Transvaal capital was received calmly, almost indifferently, it appeared, but this was explained by Mr. Fischer who said: "The news does not come as a surprise. The fight will continue." Mayor Harrison headed the reception committee, but he was momentarily put in the background by an energetic man who although unknown to the committee, rushed up the steps of the car from which the Afrikaners were about to alight. "On behalf of the Democracy which I have supported for 27 years," he declared in a loud voice, "I bid you welcome."

Later Mr. Wessels was shown the press dispatches announcing the fall of Pretoria. He read them through very carefully. "It is true. There can be no doubt of that," he said slowly, as he read the last words.

"It means," he continued, "that organized resistance on a large scale will no longer be the problem presented to Lord Roberts in South Africa. It means that from now on the burghers will pursue much the same tactics adopted by the Filipinos. We may surrender, but we will never be conquered. Pretoria was well fortified, but our generals saw that it was useless to stand the siege when they had but 5,000 men to combat the enemy's 60,000."

"They have withdrawn in good order, no doubt, and are still able to fight. And Pretoria has been saved from a bombardment which would have wrecked it. Lord Roberts has with him twice as many fighting men as there are men, women and children in Pretoria. Was it not wise then to retreat in the face of such odds?"

"I half expected that there would be a battle outside of the city, but still I am not surprised. Doubtless the situation has changed considerably since I left."

"The outcome of a guerilla warfare, generally is not in favor of the guerillas. But in our case we hope for a change in European affairs which will aid us. If we are still able to fight and the European nations become involved over some question—China, for instance—I have no doubt that the Transvaal could get the best of terms, probably their independence."

"That the Boers, as you call us, although we call ourselves Afrikaners, are good fighters, the world realizes. Hardly a battle has been fought in which we have not been outnumbered twenty to one. And we have not lost a gun. Can the British say as much?"

"Concerning our reception in this country, I will say that the envoys are convinced that nine-tenths of the people are in sympathy with our cause and believe it to be just."

A mass meeting was held at the Auditorium and a rousing welcome was given the Transvaalers. Arrangements were made for an overflow meeting in Studebaker hall. The party will next go to St. Paul.

Four Miles From Pretoria.

London, June 5.—It is officially announced that Lord Roberts occupied Six Miles Spruit on June 4. The war office issues the following dispatch from Lord Roberts at Six Miles Spruit:

"We started at daybreak and marched about 10 miles to Six Miles Spruit, both banks of which were occupied by the enemy. Henry's and Ross' mounted infantry with the West Somerset, Dorset, Bedford and Sussex companies of Yeomanry, quickly dislodged them from the south bank and pursued them nearly a mile, when they found themselves confronted with a heavy fire from guns which the Boers had placed in a well-concealed position. Our heavy guns of the naval and royal artillery which had purposely been placed in the front of the column were hurried to the assistance of the mounted infantry as fast as oxen and mules could travel over the great, rolling hills, surrounding Pretoria. The guns were supported by Stevenson's brigade of Pole-Carew's and after a few rounds drove the enemy from their positions."

The Boers then attempted to turn our left flank in which they were again foiled by the mounted infantry and yeomanry, supported by Maxwell's brigade of Tucker's division. As, however, they still kept pressing our left rear I sent word to Ian Hamilton, who was advancing three miles to our left, to incline towards us and fill up the gap between the two columns. This finally checked the enemy who were driven back toward Pretoria. I hoped we would have been able to follow them up, but the days are now very short in this part of the world; and after nearly two hours' marching and fighting we had to bivouac on the ground gained during the day. The Guard's brigade is quite near the southernmost fort by which Pretoria is defended and less than four miles from town. General French with the Third and Fourth cavalry brigades and Hutton's New South Wales mounted rifles, north of Pretoria. Broadwoods' brigade is between French's and Hamilton's columns, and Gordon is watching the right flank of the main force, not far from the railway bridge at Irene station, which was destroyed by the enemy. Our casualties, I hope, are very few."

CONGRESSMAN LENTZ

Figures In a Live-y Scene In House of Representatives.

Washington, June 5.—There was a riotous scene in the house during a clash between Mr. Lentz (Ohio) and Mr. Hall (Iowa) growing out of a bitter attack on General Corbin by the former. The matter culminated when Mr. Lentz intimated that General Corbin appointed the sons of congressmen in the army to help along his promotion. Mr. Hull frankly admitted that he had a son in the army. He aroused his side to cheers when he proclaimed that he thanked God he had sons who could fight for country.

"I thank God," said he, "that I am not one of those anonymous creatures who are unable to perpetrate their species."

Cheer after cheer greeted this shot and when Mr. Lentz replied that if he had a son he would be able to support himself, the hall of the house was filled with hisses.

The confusion was riotous and order was with great difficulty restored.

Negro Returned to Jail.

Mobile, Ala., June 5.—The men from Handsboro, Miss., took the negro, Askew, from the Mississippi City jail at 11 p. m. and carried him in a wagon to the home of Winterstein near Biloxi, where the Winterstein child was outraged and murdered Saturday. Mr. Winterstein, the father, was called out and all went to the woods where the crime was committed. There the negro was put through an ordeal with the intention of forcing a confession. The negro continued, however, to protest his innocence. He was returned to the jail at 5 a. m. Mayor Nash telegraphed to all points for suspects to be held.

Appointments For Alaska.

Dubuque, Ia., June 5.—George G. Perry, Dubuque, has been appointed United States marshal for Alaska. He was former member of the Republican state committee and several times chairman of the congressional committee. It is also stated that George Crane of this city, Senator Allison's former law partner, and twice postmaster of Dubuque, will be federal judge of Alaska.

Robbers Overtaken.

Sterling, Col., June 5.—The sheep camp of King and Southgate, three miles northeast of here, was robbed by two men who bound and gagged the proprietors and their two employees. After the robbers left the sheepmen released themselves and aided by a neighbor overhauled the robbers, killing one and badly wounding and capturing the other. The latter said their names were William Harris and William Reed and that they were from Tennessee. James Lynch, one of the pursuers, was painfully wounded in the hip.

To Face All Europe.

Shanghai, June 5.—The China Gazette says it has the highest authority for stating that the dowager empress has ordered the Tsung Li Yamen to face all Europe rather than to interfere with the "Boxer" movement. Elsewhere it is asserted that the viceroys has ordered troops to oppose the further landing of parties from foreign warships and that the troops now engaged in operations are designed to prevent further foreign reinforcements reaching Peking.

Referred to Mrs. Sherman.

Washington, June 5.—At the opening of the session of the senate the chaplain in his invocation referred to the bereavement of former Senator Sherman in the death of his wife. He spoke of her as "keeping her home-bred virtues and showing to all the type of a divinely noble, Christian character."

Conferees Agree.

Washington, June 5.—The senate has adopted the report of the conferees on the Alaskan bill and the bill now goes to the president.

DREW A REPLY.

Hanna Makes a Statement About Contributions to Campaign Fund.

Washington, June 5.—When the anti-trust bill was laid before the senate, Mr. Pettigrew (S. D.) moved to proceed with its consideration. Mr. Gallinger (N. H.) moved to refer the matter to the committee on judiciary. In the course of a speech on the subject, Mr. Bacon (Ga.) said he was profoundly surprised that the statement made a few days ago, by Mr. Pettigrew that the Cramps, shipbuilders, of Philadelphia, had contributed $400,000 to the Republican national campaign fund of 1892 with the promise that they would be repurchased by contracts for the building of warships, had not been denied.

He regarded it as a most remarkable statement and directed attention to the fact that Mr. Hanna and Mr. Carter intimately connected with that campaign, were in the chamber and heard the statement.

Instantly Mr. Hanna was on his feet. "If," said he, sharply, "I should undertake to reply to all such statements made on this floor, I would occupy more time of the senate even than the senator from Georgia does. I heard the statement and considered it unworthy of notice and I declined to dignify it by a denial. I had nothing to do with the campaign of 1892, but I have heard this story and I say most emphatically and decidedly that I believe it is not true. So far as such allusions are made to the campaign of 1896, I desire to say that no promises were made, no considerations were offered to any person or any contributions made."

Mr. Carter warmly denied any improper use of money in 1892 and stated as false any statement that promises were made.

Mr. Pettigrew followed with assertions that Cramp had told him that he gave $400,000 in 1892 and said it was improperly spent. Mr. Pettigrew then took up the minority report of the committee on privileges and elections which investigated the charges against Senator Hanna and read from it at length.

Mr. Hanna then briefly reviewed the Ohio senatorial election saying there was an attempt "made by Democrats and traitorous Republicans like the senator from South Dakota" who attempted to defeat the nomination of the Republican party for senator.

Mr. Hanna continued in a denunciation of Mr. Pettigrew's course, saying that he sometimes doubted the sanity of the man in putting such reports as he did in the record and expect people to believe it.

Mr. Carter followed Mr. Hanna, replying to the remark of Mr. Pettigrew about the alleged $400,000 contribution of Cramp.

Mr. Carter in most vigorous manner denied the statement of Mr. Pettigrew.

Mr. Carter warned the Democrats that as they were to associate with Mr. Pettigrew they must have care. He said the old adage was applicable, "that they who laid down with dogs they must expect to get up with the fleas."

Mr. Pettigrew replied briefly saying the conversation had occurred.

Mr. Foraker then referred to the Ohio case and quoted James A. Garfield in defense of Mr. Hanna saying that the reports showed that there was no case against Mr. Hanna. He said that the charges of Mr. Pettigrew would be answered in November as the people of Oregon had answered similar charges.

No Further Action.

Washington, June 5.—The state department has received a cablegram Minister Conger at Peking stating that matters have taken a much more serious turn there. No details are given, but it is indicated that the "Boxers" activity is extending very closely to the Chinese capital. The state department still finds itself unable to do more than it has already ordered respecting the protection of American interests in China. Troops are not available, and even if they were, the government here is disinclined to participate in any joint demonstration that would menace the integrity of the Chinese empire. This statement is a sufficient answer to the intimation coming from the British newspapers that United States co-operation with British forces in China would be welcomed.

Wheeler's Appointment.

Washington, June 5.—The nomination of Joseph Wheeler to be a brigadier general in the regular army has been prepared at the war department by the president's order and will be presented to the senate as soon as the nomination of General Otis to be a major general has been disposed of.

Ohio Postmasters.

Washington, June 5.—Ohio postmasters were appointed as follows: Walter Elliott, Ada; Louis A. Koons, Massillon; E. C. Miller, New Carlisle.

A STREETCAR HOISTED

By Terrific Explosion of Dynamite on Tracks at St. Louis.

LOADED WITH DEPUTY SHERIFFS.

Prominent Business Men of Missouri Metropolis Have Requested Governor Stephens to Order Out the State Troops.

St. Louis, June 5.—A special car that carried Co. H of the posse committatus from the barracks on Washington avenue over the Chouteau avenue line to the car shed at Jefferson avenue and LaSalle street was wrecked by the explosion of two dynamite cartridges placed on the track at Fifteenth and Washington avenue and at Twenty-second street and Chouteau avenue. The explosion lifted the car three feet in the air and threw the occupants to the floor. Fifty-four men were on the car. Two of them, F. Fleischman and Sam Schwartzberg were slightly injured. The explosion aroused the neighborhood and in a few minutes about 5,000 people were on the scene. They commenced to hoot and jeer at the deputies and soon the air was thick with flying stones and other missiles. Then somebody in the crowd commenced to discharge a revolver at the car. The deputies were at once ordered to use their guns and they fired in the air as they charged the crowd. The shooting had the desired effect and in a few minutes the crowd was dispersed.

So far as known none of the assailants were hurt.

The following telegram signed by 50 prominent business men was sent to Governor Stephens at Jefferson City:

"We, the undersigned citizens of the city of St. Louis, respectfully represent that a condition of riotous lawlessness exists as incident to the strike upon the strike upon the street railways of the city, which prevents the running of cars and the consequent paralysis of business, which the police of the city are numerically insufficient to suppress, the police board and police are in earnest but have not numbers enough to accomplish the restoration of order and protect property and insure personal safety. The future is ominous of serious danger. We therefore ask that you order out the militia at once. Promptness will save much property and life and quickly restore order."

Governor Stephens, who was interviewed by telegraph, said he could not call out the militia until he was sure the necessity of their presence in St. Louis existed. In any case, he said, he would take no such action until after a conference with the police authorities of St. Louis.

DATE OF BURIAL.

Body of Mrs. Sherman Will Be Laid to Rest Thursday.

Mansfield, O., June 5.—Mrs. John Sherman, who died at midnight from a stroke of paralysis sustained Sunday afternoon, will be buried here Thursday morning at 10:30 a. m., according to her desire expressed a short time ago. Her body will be laid at rest beside that of her father, the late Judge Stewart. Telegrams of condolence to the family are numerous.

Bryan on Trusts.

Washington, June 5.—Mr. Cummings read the following letter on the floor of the house from Colonel W. J. Bryan: Lincoln, Neb., June 2.—"I see that the Republicans are asserting that I think a constitutional amendment necessary for the annihilation of trusts. I have never said or believed that an amendment was necessary. I have urged legislation which I believed to be constitutional and I have said I favor a constitutional amendment if the decisions of the supreme court declare such legislation unconstitutional. The Republican party does not want to discuss the trusts. During the session of congress the Republicans have unanimously supported a proposition to give the national banks control of the currency and thus create a paper money trust. I enclose a copy of my Chicago anti-trust speech which discusses the question of constitutional amendment."

Pleaded Guilty.

Philadelphia, June 5.—Four of the defendants in the famous Lancaster revenue cigar stamp counterfeit conspiracy entered pleas of guilty in the United States district court. They were William M. Jacobs and William L. Kendig, Lancaster cigar manufacturers; Samuel B. Downe, formerly deputy internal revenue collector and James Burns, one of Jacobs' employees. The indictments charged Jacobs and Kendig with counterfeiting, Downe with accepting a bribe and Burns with aiding and abetting.

KENTUCKY CROP OUTLOOK.

Copious Rains Last Week Very Beneficial.
 Prospects For Wheat, Corn and Tobacco.

The drouth, which threatened to become severe, has been completely broken by the copious rains of the past week. In the extreme southeastern portion the rainfall was rather light, but in the central and western portions of the State it was heavy. Heavy showers caused considerable damage by flooding and washing out crops in some localities in the western portion of the State. The temperature averaged about normal. These favorable conditions have resulted in a great improvement in all crops and the outlook is now very encouraging.

It was a grand week for setting out tobacco, and the bulk of the crop is now in the hill. Many plants were rather small, but being put out in such favorable weather, they have gotten a good start and will come on all right.

The wheat crop has been very severely injured in some localities by the Hessian fly, but in other places there will be a heavy yield.

Corn is rather late, but is now making a very rapid growth and promises well. Potatoes and garden vegetables have advanced rapidly. Oats, clover and grass show great improvement. There is some complaint of apples dropping badly. Peaches will yield well. Strawberries and cherries are ripe and abundant in the market.

In some localities cut worms are doing considerable damage to corn and tobacco, and potato bugs are bad nearly everywhere.

Louisville, June 5th.

ADJUSTABLE window awnings cheap.
 KLIPP & BROWN.

FLEMING County Democrats Monday nominated E. M. Money to succeed himself in the Legislature.

One thousand two hundred pounds of pure Paris green received and for sale.
 J. JAS. WOOD & SON, druggists.

In a short time a new 3-cent piece will appear. Owing to the fact the old 3-cent piece looked so much like a dime its coinage was withdrawn. The new piece will be made of nickel about the size of the bronze cent, only thicker.

A SPECIAL train of four coaches passed up at 10:30 for the Democratic Congressional convention at Catlettsburg. Over 100 delegates from this city and county boarded the train here. Hon. J. N. Kehoe's nomination by acclamation is practically assured.

GEO. ROUTE, the porter at the C. and O., had the thumb of his right hand badly mashed Tuesday morning as a heavy trunk was being loaded on the trucks.

MR. T. F. GOODWIN has returned from a visit to his son and daughter who are attending the Normal School at Williamsburg, Ohio. He is highly pleased with the progress of their work. This school is conducted by Messrs. S. F. Turnipseed and C. A. Wilson.

POYNTEZ BROS. are the only Maysville distillers selling pure liquors by the quart, gallon or barrel, direct from distillery to consumer. Seven-year-old whiskey $2 per gallon. Age and quality guaranteed. Get the best. Office 126 Market street—Watson's old stand.

MRS. SARAH E. BOREING, of London, Ky., has instituted suit for divorce against Vincent Boreing, the Congressman from the Eleventh district. Mrs. Boreing wants alimony and the restoration of her maiden name. She was allowed $140 for maintenance until the case is tried. Congressman Boreing is at present in Washington.

THE assertion that the lower or stem end of the Virginia Peninsula is nothing more than a huge float, which may at any time break away from the larger body of land to which it is moored, is made by Civil Engineer Guild, who is directing the work of putting in the sewerage at Hampton. Scientists are now investigating the situation. The peninsula includes the city of Newport News and the towns of Williamsburg, Hampton, Phoebus, Old Point and Ft. Monroe.

A Life and Death Fight.

MR. W. A. HINES, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store.

Matting!

There Are Two Varieties, the "China" and the "Cotton Warp."

The latter is finer in texture, more flexible and is made in more elaborate designs. It is a little more swell in effect.

The lowest priced China Matting we have is 12½c. It is reliable. There is no economy buying lower priced matting. Other prices are 15c., 19c., 25c. up to 35c., depending on quality. The patterns are all choice.

The Cotton Warp Matting Costs 20c., 25c. Up to 50c.

The medium priced ones even are in beautiful designs and furnish every effectively.

Our Matting has been carefully selected for durability, fine patterns and choice colors.

The final merit of Hunt Matting is of course handsome and correct style. The first point is quality and prices are always right.

D. HUNT & SON.

MAP OF MASON COUNTY.

The Most Complete Work of the Kind Ever Gotten Out.

Mr. Geo. W. Loeber, the civil engineer of this city, has finished the most complete map of Mason County ever gotten out. It is a thorough and most artistic piece of work in that line, showing in outline each Magisterial district, each voting precinct, together with the turnpikes, dirt roads, water courses, post-offices and railway stations and the location of every school house, with the number of each.

As a work of reference it will be found of great value. Mr. Loeber has kindly favored the BULLETIN with a copy of this map.

At Ruggles.

This old time camp meeting will begin July 26th and continue until August 6th. The services of the Rev. Mr. Watkins, D. D., of Union Church, Covington, have been engaged for one Sunday and probably Bishop Hamilton, who was lately elected Bishop, will preach one Sunday.

SAY! WHAT? WHITE, JUDD & CO. SELLING OUT! I CAN'T BELIEVE IT.

It's true all the same: G. S. Judd sold out to Mr. White and went West. J. F. Martin then sold out to Mr. White and now Mr. White sees that he cannot see well enough to conduct the business, so he has decided to close out his large and elegant stock of Furniture at cost. No 10 per cent. cut plan but at COST.

IF YOU NEED ANYTHING IN THE FURNITURE LINE NOW IS THE TIME TO SECURE IT CHEAP.

And if you don't need it just now it will pay you to buy at the cut prices for future use. Come and look through our stock and be convinced.

C. H. WHITE.

Mr. White went to Cincinnati a few days ago to have his eyes operated on, but his physician concluded it was not advisable at present, so he has decided to sell out and quit business.

He will sell any or all the houses he owns in Maysville—some at cost and some below cost, and on from one to five years' time, deferred payments to bear 5 per cent. interest.

Fancy Silks at Greatly Reduced Prices

This has been the largest silk season in the history of our store. We anticipated a great demand for silks and bought extensively. Of the former immense stock we have still left about forty patterns in waist lengths of exquisite fancy silks. We think it wise to dispose of these while the weather is still fit for silk wearing, and if price and your good judgment count for what we think they will, not a one of these silks will be carried over until next season. The $1.50 kind is now $1. The $1 grade is reduced to 75c. and so on down the list. It's a great silk opportunity. Don't miss it.

The Proper Things in Underwear.

We value our good reputation as handlers of proper underwear for men, women and children and our present large and varied stock will more than maintain it. Splendid taped neck Vests, 5c. Neck and arm holes taped, three for 25c. Lisle Vests, silk taped, 15c., 25c. and 50c. Splendid qualities of men's Balbriggan Underwear, 25c. and 50c. We carry a complete line of infants' and children's underwear from 10c. to 50c., guaranteed.

A Word or Two About Gloves.

Our one dollar guaranteed kid glove sells so rapidly that we seldom feel a need to advertise it. It is the famous F. W. L. Glove and improves with each season's output. In the undressed kid the Dupray at $1.50 and in the dressed kid the La Rome at the same price are masterpieces of the glove makers' art. Both guaranteed.

Captain Longmire and Sergeant McClure Top Slick for the Local Taylorites.

Captain C. W. Longmire and Sergeant B. R. McClure, who came in Monday night to muster out the Mason County Guards, left without attending to that business, and connected with their departure is an interesting story showing how the local Taylorites went after the couple as soon as they struck town.

Longmire and McClure deserted the Taylor camp during the exciting scenes this spring at Frankfort, and Republicans have had it in for them ever since. At noon Tuesday, the two got a tip that warrants had been sworn out before Police Judge Wadsworth charging them with being drunk and disorderly. Another tip was that those behind the warrants intended having fifty or sixty witnesses summoned, so as to make it cost the two as heavily as possible.

Longmire and McClure at once sought safety by flight, a la Taylor and Finley, and crossed to Aberdeen, where they remained until this morning when they returned home.

They authorized Policeman Wallace Tuesday afternoon to receive the equipment of the local company and ship the outfit to Frankfort, but Captain Cochran declined to do this.

Captain Calhoun, of Lexington, will probably be sent down to attend to the work Capt. Longmire and Sergeant McClure failed to complete.

Glorious News
Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by J. J. Wood & Son, druggists. Guaranteed.

The Appetite of a Goat
Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose stomach and liver are out of order. PITHY POLITICAL POINTS.

[By Robert Taylor.]

The law has yet another hold on Taylor.

Who knows but Taylor may have provided himself with one of those ready-made pardons?

Taylor may be a martyr in the eyes of some people, but he's a criminal in the eyes of very many more.

Taylor will have to have his hold on Indiana loosened before he can be started in a "race."

When sow's ears may be made into silk purses, then a patriot and martyr may be made of Taylor.

After using those young fellows at Frankfort to "rake the chestnuts out of the fire," Taylor showed his mettle by putting the river between him and any responsibility.

Taylor prates about the insecurity of life in Kentucky, but the victim of his hellish conspiracy, the mute Goebel, is a much more powerful witness thereto than Taylor.

Taylor should have provided himself with one of his ready-made pardons while they were so cheap, and then his health might not have required such a hurried departure for an Indiana watering place.

The L. and N.'s gross earnings in April were $2,148,371, an increase of $230,310 over April, 1899.

Mrs. Robert H. Williams returned home Saturday after a week's visit with friends in Maysville.

Cutworms have been numerous and quite disastrous to agricultural prospects in grass and rye sod ground, some farmers having to replant and reset whole fields of corn and tobacco.

As it is not known that President McKinley ever spoke one kind word for Mr. Taylor, it is not likely he will favor him with a position equal to the gubernatorial office of Kentucky, the grand old State that has so vividly proven she is capable of attending to her own business.

BERNARD.

John Brodt is sick this week.

Miss Elizabeth Key visited friends here Tuesday.

Miss Allie Wells, of Maysville, is the guest of Miss Minnie Wells.

Mrs. Emma Fowler made a flying trip to Cincinnati Monday.

Miss Ida Mae Tyler returned home from her school at Richmond Friday.

Dr. C. H. Wallin and John Collis, of Brooksville, were calling here Sunday evening.

Will B. Bell is operating the mail line between here and Brooksville in the absence of Politt.

Misses Kemper Hancock and Anna Clay Miner, of Brooksville, were calling in town Monday evening.

Mrs. Sue Williams is home after an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. Tarleton Kennedy, of Wigginsville, O.

J. H. Blackburn, our clever banker, spent May 30th in Cincinnati, meeting his four brothers who are also bankers in other parts of the State.

Our Decoration Day service was well attended. The rain made the marching somewhat difficult in the morning, but in the afternoon an immense crowd was present. The speeches were splendid and the music grand.

MAYSICK.

A good many from here attended County Court Monday.

James Archdeacon and sisters, of Carlisle, spent Sunday here with relatives.

Miss Elizabeth Mitchell is home from Hamilton College to spend vacation with her parents.

Just the Thing.

Hot weather is here, and your kitchen will be much more comfortable if you will use a good

Gas Cooking Stove

Besides, it is much cheaper and safer. Gasoline Stoves endanger life and property, but a gas stove is absolutely reliable and safe. Call on MAYSVILLE GAS COMPANY and get prices and they will furnish satisfactory recommendations if desired.

IT'S TIME TO THINK

Of harvesting and threshers' supplies. Many repairs will be needed and lost articles will have to be replaced. Attention to these matters in time means a saving of valuable time and much annoyance when reaping time rolls round. We invite the attention of farmers to the fact that we are headquarters for

Leather
and Rubber Belting,
Lace Strings,
Rivets and Burs,
Belt Hooks,
Endless Thresher Belts
Oil Cans, Wrenches,
